UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR VETERANS CLAIMS

No. 16-2993

ROBERT M. SELLERS, APPELLANT,

V.

ROBERT L. WILKIE,
SECRETARY OF VETERANS AFFAIRS, APPELLEE.

ORDER

Appellant Robert M. Sellers appealed an April 29, 2016, Board of Veterans' Appeals decision denying an effective date earlier than September 18, 2009, for his service-connected major depressive disorder. In an August 23, 2018, precedential decision, the Court set aside the Board decision and remanded the matter. The Court held that a general statement of intent to seek benefits, coupled with a reasonably identifiable in-service medical diagnosis reflected in service treatment records VA possessed before the RO decided the claim, may be sufficient to constitute a claim for benefits.<sup>3</sup>

In a July 2020 decision, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit (Federal Circuit) reversed this Court's decision.<sup>4</sup> The Federal Circuit held that this Court "formulated an incorrect legal test for determining if Mr. Sellers is entitled to an earlier effective date" and that "[u]nder the correct test, a veteran's formal claim is required to identify the sickness, disease, or injuries for which compensation is sought, at least at a high level of generality." The Federal Circuit held that appellant undisputedly failed that test and thus was not entitled to an earlier effective date. The court reversed this Court's decision and remanded the matter for the entry of judgment against appellant.

Upon consideration of the foregoing, it is
